It's Time to Get Back to "The Back to the Land!"

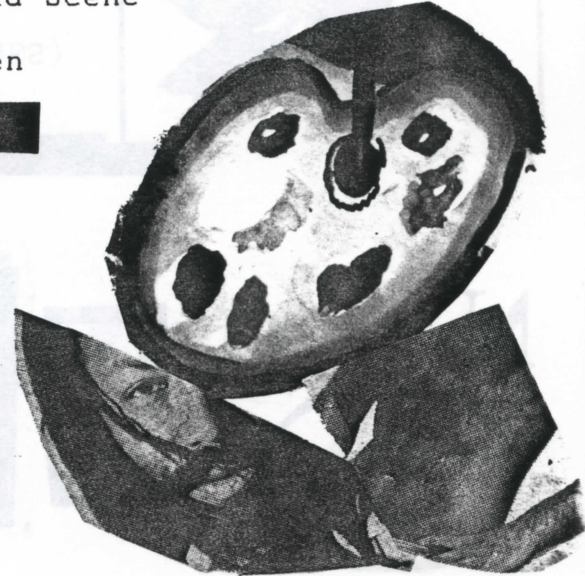

She missed her Old Life
When she was Young & Thin and Glamorous and just at that "Time-of-Her-Life" Life

So she greyhounded back to the Old Scene to find the Old Team
But her friends weren't to be seen

Because it is the nineties
And time to get back to the Back to the Land!

up with inflation

Easy-to-make scrunchies are a great way to use up scraps.

I am forty-one years old
I can't help it, but I feel,
(I keep thinking, babe)
That I deserve more than this Night Shift at the Seven Eleven Store

It's not the polyester uniform
Or my misspelled name tag
Or the Martian Green fluorescent lights
Or the mind-numbing repetition
Or the Neandrethal Customers

But I miss my Old Life
My Executive & Glamorous
"Well-paid - and - well-travelled" Life
And I keep feeling, darling,
That I deserve MORE
More Joy            More Life            More Time            More Happiness

Honey, I've tried the Headhunters
the Bodysnatchers & Fleshpeddlers, ("Executive Recruiters" & "Management Consultants")

I've pursued: Part Time
Full Time and Composite (that's 3 or more Part Time Jobs) with a Bus Pass

I've thought about Going Back to School for Retraining

I've gone to Resume Classes and How-to-Find-a-Job Seminars

Sweetie: I can synthesize, coordinate, and innovate,
As well as: analyze, compile, and compute Don't forget: negotiate, instruct, supervise, divert; as well as categorize, and (of course) prioritize!

Sugar: they KNOW me at Canada Manpower!

Baby, maybe its time
To get back to the Back to the Land!

I never see You or the Kids
 (I live like a vampire)
 Just finding a half hour when we are both conscious Is so hard
 That I can't remember the last time we made love

I do love you, sugar
 You don't complain - you clip those coupons
 You didn't mind losing the house and moving to this trailer park
 But, my little sugar bush, D'ya think it's time to get back to the Back to the Land?
