Canadian-born Japanese should be permitted to return to the University of British Columbia after the war, it is indicated in a poll conducted by the campus newspaper, Ubyssay.

The publication conducted personal interviews with 300 of the 2000 students enrolled this year and found that 67 percent favored the return; 36 percent were against it and 4 percent were undecided.

Chinese students appeared to be about 60 to 70 in favor of the Nisei returning.
